

Wm. Campbell Graeub

1932 - 2024

Campbell Graeub passed away on February 8, 2024 after a short illness. Campbell was born and raised in Bern, Switzerland, and moved with his family to Atlanta, Georgia in 1949. He graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in Civil Engineering. Campbell worked in Seattle for Boeing, then for the Washington, DC Department of Highways, followed by a long career at the National Academy of Sciences with the Transportation Research Board.

He moved to Chevy Chase, MD in 1963, where he lived until 2020 when he moved to a senior residence in Bethesda, MD. He was active in the Swiss community, his church, and local civic affairs. Campbell is survived by his wife of 63 years, Joy; two children, Gail and Andrew; and four grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held on May 18, 2024 at 11 a.m. at Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations in Campbell's memory to BCC Rescue Squad or Shepherd's Table.

To plant trees in memory, please visit the Sympathy Store.

Published by The Washington Post from May 11 to May 12, 2024.